DEAR KIDS,

Jesus loved to be with children.

He told grown-ups that when we welcome you into our lives, we welcome him.

So we're excited to share The BIG Way of Love for Kids: a set of cards and activities to help you to follow Jesus and his Way of Love.

You can play with these cards in so many ways! That's good, because we never stop learning and playing as followers of Jesus.

We hope this offering helps you to become your BIG self—the beloved child God created you to be.

LOVE,

Your Episcopal Church Family

ABOUT THE BIG WAY OF LOVE FOR KIDS

The BIG Way of Love for Kids comes from the Way of Love, a set of seven practices in The Episcopal Church that help us all to look, live, and love more like Jesus.

ABOUT THE BIG WAY OF LOVE FOR KIDS

The practices in these cards are the same ones adults use to follow Jesus in the Way of Love.

Together, we:

TURN to Jesus
LEARN about him
PRAY to God
WORSHIP God
BLESS friends
GO out in love
REST in God's grace

Each color goes with one of the practices in the Way of Love. You can pick any card you like or focus on cards of one color at a time.

They're not like homework. These practices are a way of life!

ABOUT THE BIG WAY OF LOVE FOR KIDS

Each card in this deck has something special, just for you:

SAY it

a story from the Bible to read or hear

PRAY it

hopes and concerns to share with God

LIVE it

a game or activity to try

You can play alone, with your friends, or with the grown-ups in your life.

On the front of each card, you will find one or more white pinwheel symbols.

How many pinwheels do you see?

- * = getting started
-  = next level
-  = all the way

If you're new to reading, it might be good to start with the * cards. If the  and  cards are tricky, ask a grown-up to read them with you.

Some cards also come with a special Bible story that you can listen to. Look for this code your grown-ups can scan.

God made every kind of wildlife, every kind of livestock, and every kind of creature that crawls on the ground. God saw how good it was. Have a tea party with your friends, your family, or your stuffed animals. The food can be pretend or a simple snack.

Practice saying only kind things to one another. Like, what do you like about each of your guests? Or, how do they make your life better? Ask each other, “What makes you feel loved?”

When you’re finished, you can wash each other’s feet—for real or pretend.

Being Loved

Jesus loves you for who you are, just as you are. Today, take a moment to look yourself in the eye (use a mirror) and tell yourself all the great, cool, lovely things about YOU.

Or draw a picture of yourself doing and being all those great, cool, lovely things.

Ask Jesus: "What do you love about me?" Imagine him naming the things God really loves about you, since you are God's creation.

The Opposites Game

You can play this game anywhere, because all you need is your words and imagination!

The first person picks a word. The next person has to name its opposite. (Things like: up/down, happy/sad, soft/hard.)

Next level: Name a way of behaving that isn't so great, and find its opposite. For example, if someone says: "When someone falls on the playground, I point and laugh at them," the opposite could be, "When someone falls, I ask if they're okay, help them up, and invite them to play."

Place the rock in a bowl and pour some water over it. Now you are ready to turn back to Jesus and follow his Way of Love.

It is not always easy to love like Jesus, is it? That's why we have to practice. Think about how you can be kind and safe, even when other people are not:

- Is there someone at school who isn't nice to you? Can you walk away instead of arguing with them? Can you ask an adult to help you talk to that person?
- Is there someone in your family who seems tired and stressed a lot? How can you show that person love?

On the sixth day God completed all the work of creation, and on the seventh day God rested from all the work that God had done. God blessed the seventh day and made it holy, because on that day God rested from all work.

Matthew 11:28-30

Jesus said: “Come to me, all you who are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.”

REST

Dear God, you showed us through your actions that rest is important. You invite me to snuggle with a pet, color on a page, listen to music, read a story, or just sit outside and be amazed at nature. These are ways to rest when I'm not sleeping.

Help me and my grown-ups to get good rest—and help us to feel close to you, surrounded in peace, when we rest.

Amen.

Guide us waking, O Lord,
and guard us sleeping;
that awake we may watch
with Christ,
and asleep we may rest in peace.

Breathing with God

When God created people, God filled their lungs with God's own breath. God then took a day just to rest and enjoy the world. God wants us to feel that breath, and to rest and enjoy creation, as well. Invite your family or friends to join you in this game:

- Lie down on your bed or the floor.
- Put a stuffed animal on your belly.
- Close your eyes and breathe into your belly—you should be able to feel the stuffed animal rising with your breath.
- Breathe out slowly, letting the stuffed animal slowly and gently sink down.
- When you feel like you're done, smile and say, "Thank you, God," and quietly get up.

A Time to Rest

Sometimes it's hard to take time for rest because we want to keep playing, or it feels hard to make our bodies stop moving. God shows us that rest is important. Jesus even napped in the bottom of a rocking boat!

In the morning, before you get out of bed, take three deep breaths while you pray, "Good morning, God!"

In the afternoon, before dinnertime, try closing your eyes and breathing with God for one minute. Can you extend your quiet time to two minutes? Three minutes? How long can you breathe with God?

Resting from Worry

Rest is important for our bodies, and also for our minds and hearts. We might need to let go of a worry or say a fear out loud.

- Think about something that is making you sad or worried.
- Hold your cupped hands in front of your mouth.
- Whisper your trouble into your hands, as a prayer offered to Jesus.
- Take your hands from your face and open them to God.

Whenever you do this, God is helping to carry your sadness and your worries. You don't ever have to carry them alone.
